Paradise Table Talk

Fresh from our table to yours

SEPTEMBER 2008

Paradise says goodbye to the Summer Berry Salad and hello to the sensational Asian Chicken Salad

This September, Chef Gregory Casale, the force behind the fresh and delicious menu at Paradise Bakery & Café, puts his creative stamp on the delicious salad menu with his latest creation. The Asian Chicken Salad is a colorful assortment of shredded Napa cabbage, carrots, green onions and chow-mein noodles, all tossed with a sweet soy dressing and topped with edamame and Asian garlic chicken.

The Asian Chicken Salad can be found at any neighborhood Paradise Bakery location starting September 1st. Join us in saying goodbye to summer and hello to our tasty new addition.

North Central Phoenix Gets a "Taste" of Paradise

We've opened the doors to our newest location in Phoenix! The Village Shops is located at 1125 East Glendale Avenue (on the southwest corner of 12th Street and Glendale). Our 4,700 square-foot restaurant features patio seating, family style tables, free Wi-Fi and the same excellent food, exceptional people and great ambiance that our guests have celebrated for years.

On the road? Need a break? Our free Wi-Fi lets you stay connected.

General Manager Courtney Sparks will lead the 40-person team of employees at the Terminal 3 Paradise Bakery.

Paradise Bakery & Café Opens Third Airport Store at Phoenix Sky Harbor

Paradise Bakery & Café opened its third Phoenix Sky Harbor International Airport store on Monday, August 18, 2008. Located in the Main Rotunda of Terminal 3, the new store features all of the fresh soups, salads, sandwiches and baked goods that have made Paradise Bakery & Café one of the airport's leading dining destinations.

In addition to the Terminal 3 location, Paradise Bakery & Café is also located in Terminal 2 with General Manager Josette Rodriguez, and in Terminal 4 with General Manager April Demarest. Now, three terminals have cafés here to serve you!
