

It's that time of year again

Here it is...the holiday season. November marks the full-fledged wild beast that is the winter holiday season. It's tempting to lock your doors or book a cruise, but then you would miss all the fun! With a little help from your local Paradise Bakery, the holidays will leave you with a warm glow. Office party? Try Paradise Bakery & Café catering. If you are exhausted the day after Thanksgiving, then let Paradise Bakery & Café cook for you. Attending a football party? Show your team support with a Giant Cookie decorated in team colors. For the last holiday hurdle, our wide range of gifts fit all wallet sizes.

Palette of Homes

The Palette of Homes Tour, sponsored by Phoenix Home & Garden magazine to benefit Free Arts of Arizona, has become one of the most popular and well attended home tours in the Valley. We hope you will join Chef Gregory Casale, who will be preparing fresh gourmet treats at one of the homes on the Dream Tour on Nov. 8th. Now entering its 15th year, Palette of Homes offers an opportunity to see extraordinary homes by some of the most talented architects, builders and interior designers, and sample delectable cuisine by top Valley chefs. Paradise Bakery & Café is pleased to be a major sponsor of Free Arts of Arizona.

Limited tour tickets availability at: freeartsaz.org/index.php/calendar/palettehomes.

Chef Gregory's Blog: Stocking your pantry

In order to be ready for the upcoming holiday baking and cooking season I will be going over how to stock your pantry in this month's blog post. While a well stocked pantry is always a good idea, it is imperative during the holiday season. Whether you're preparing large meals or get surprised by guests, your pantry can be a lifesaver.

Testing, Testing 1...2...3

If you're in the Phoenix area, we have a treat for you! Right now, the Raintree Paradise Bakery & Café is testing a new breakfast. Stop by and try our new freshly baked bagel varieties, i.e. Cinnamon Crunch, Asiago Cheese or Jalapeno Cheddar to name a few. Or sample one of the three new egg soufflés: Four Cheese; Spinach and Artichoke; or Spinach Bacon. If you need to grab and go, tame early morning hunger pangs with a breakfast sandwich available in three selections: Bacon, Egg and Cheese; Egg and Cheese; or Sausage, Egg and Cheese. Last, but certainly not least, round out your morning meal with freshly brewed coffee or a low-fat smoothie. Come be part of the "test" and enjoy a Paradise breakfast at: 14884 N Pima Rd, Scottsdale, AZ, 85260
